Kings Landing Bottle Creek, North Caicos

$129,000.00

KINGS LANDING is a well-planned subdivision located in central North Caicos on the shore of beautiful Bottle Creek. The subdivision plan includes a small hotel with residential parcels for homeowners, farm plots and common green space. Over 30% of the parcels have been sold to date and power access is now completed to all parcels.

This is an exceptional opportunity to join this well designed subdivision and build your Caribbean dream home on two contiguous lots of 2.1 acres with a view over the water. Common access for all lots to Bottle Creek is a highlight of this subdivision and purchasing these lots will be a solid and safe long term investment.

The main village on North Caicos - Bottle Creek- is minutes away on the paved road with groceries, gas, clinic, school, library and churches. Kings Landing is a very convenient location to make your life on North Caicos easy and comfortable, overlooking the East Bay Islands, just a short kayak ride away!
